

North West Eco-Schools Sustainability Conference 2020

18th June Blackburn Rovers Football Club

Key Note Speakers Wayne Dixon & Koda

Veteran, Keep Britain Tidy Ambassador, #LitterHero

Talking about his 8000 mile journey cleaning our coastlines.

Odd Socks drama performance related to global warming & climate change

Marketplace Activities with the opportunity for high schools to showcase sustainability projects

Challenges and Competitions

Adult CPD - Learning Mean the World

WANTED

Reliable high school students to take on the role of Group Leaders (ideal for those interested in learning for sustainability; a career in EDS and/or teaching/childcare)

- Up-Cycled Clothing Competition for textile students
- Sustainability Rap Competition for music departments
- STEM Green Challenge for STEM teams £100 cash prize of the winning school
- Zero Waste Packed Lunch Competition

Supported by the world's largest educational programme @EcoSchools

Book Now

Name of School _____

Number of Student Group Leaders

Staff Places Main Contact

Telephone Number

E-mail address

Twitter account

____ STEM green Challenge Team Places (6 students per team) entrance fee £10 per team

____ Upcycled Clothing entries (£3 per entry)

____ Sustainability rap entry (£3 per entry)

E-mail completed form to schoolssustainabilityconferences@btinternet.com

Cheques payable to: Lancashire Schools Sustainability Forum. Post to Lancashire Schools Sustainability Forum, c/o 1 Lappet Grove Cottam, Preston, PR4 0DF

Supported by players of

Awarded funds from

www.eco-schools.org.uk